

Old Jamestown History Events

September and October 2019

In celebration of the 200th anniversary of “James Town” first appearing in print (June 14, 1819), the Old Jamestown Association History Committee has been asked to participate in several events this fall.

September 15, 2019, Sunday, 2:00 p.m.: Peggy Kruse (‘Old Jamestown across the Ages’) will speak at the annual meeting of the Florissant Valley Historical Society at Taille de Noyer, 1896 S. New Florissant Road

Three talks on Old Jamestown History will be hosted at the Jamestown Bluffs Branch of the St. Louis County Library, 4153 North Hwy 67:

September 25, 2019, Wednesday, 6:30 p.m.: Peggy Kruse will speak on the early days of Old Jamestown.

October 2, 2019, Wednesday, 6:30 p.m.: Peggy Kruse and Mary Stellhorn will share stories of Old Jamestown past residents in their own words.

October 30, 2019, Wednesday, 6:30 p.m.: Cindy Winkler will speak on Slavery and Civil War connections in Old Jamestown.

In addition, the Old Jamestown Association History Committee will again participate in the St. Louis County Library ‘Local History Expo.’

October 26, 2019, Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.: OJA History Committee will have a table at the Expo and give a brief talk at 11:50 a.m., at the SLCL Main Branch, 1640 South Lindbergh Boulevard.
